5. Correspondence: None
6. Old Business:
 - a. Pickle ball court repair: Riedel and Nett discussed reasoning and potential costs to repair the middle court of pickle ball court area. Riedel stated that we should start investigating costs and get the process started this year for a repair to happen next year. Issues discussed were fence issues, court issues, and if courts would be able to stay open or closed during reno.
 - b. Dog Issues at Behm Park: Nett stated that (26) signs were posted around Behm Park this past summer trying to make people aware that dogs must remain on leashes and to pick up after their dogs. Parks staff continue to see dog remnants around the park and even on playing fields themselves. The park’s staff also receive numerous complaints from walkers stating that dogs are running free.

Nett also stated that sometimes what people think is dog droppings is often coyote droppings.

7. New Business:

- a. MBSA contract renewal and proposed changes: Discussed proposed changes to MBSA's responsibilities per field maintenance and proposed changes to how "Capital Improvements" will be handled.
- b. Lake County Lightning contract renewal and proposed changes: Discussed proposed changes to Lightning's responsibilities per field maintenance and proposed changes to how "Capital Improvements" will be handled.
